

ALL INFORMATION AT JOURNAL BUREAUS.

That at the Intersection of Broadway and Sixth Avenue is Particularly Well Equipped.

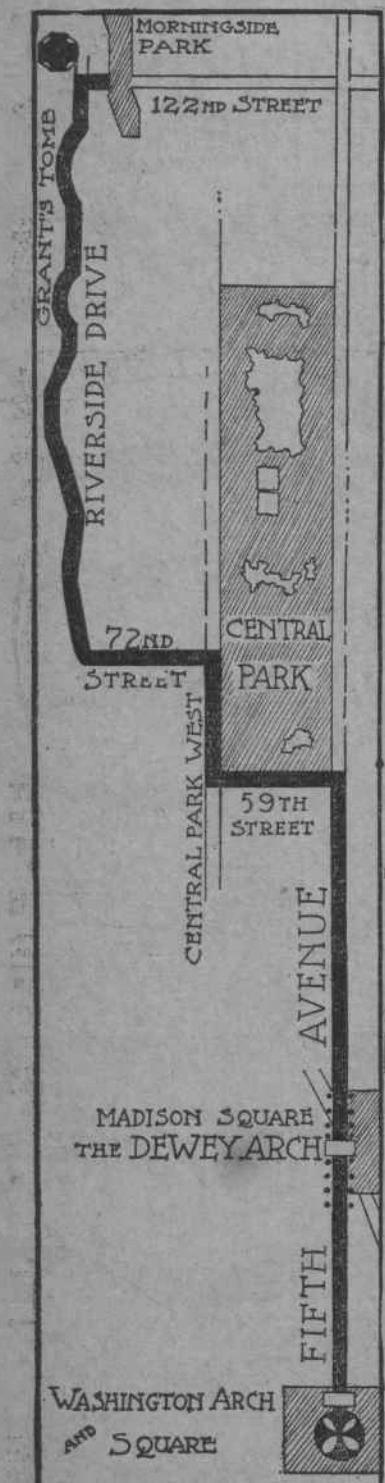

At Them All May Learn of Places They Can Stay, in Any Part of the Great City They May Select.

They Also Have Seats for the Grand Stand for Sale and Tickets for the America's Cup Yacht Races.

The Journal Dewey Celebration Information Bureaus have become a success. They are doing a great work in furnishing needed information to strangers arriving in New York for the welcome to Admiral Dewey.

Where the Bureaus Are.
These are the Journal's Information Bureaus:
Hotel Bartholdi Bureau, Broadway and Twenty-third street.
Dime Savings Bank Building Bureau, Broadway, Sixth Avenue and Thirty-second street.
Hotel Virginia Bureau, Broadway, Central Park Circle and Eighth Avenue.
Journal's Main Office Bureau, Printing House square.
Journal's Uptown Office Bureau, No. 1207 Broadway.
Journal's Harlem Office Bureau, No. 250 West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street.
Journal's Brooklyn Office Bureau, No. 311 Washington street, Brooklyn.

At each of these bureaus a corps of clerks is kept busy day and night answering inquiries by visit, by letter and by telegram. From Maine to California the fact has become known that the Journal is caring for visitors to the Dewey celebration and from Maine to California letters and telegrams are pouring in asking the Journal's help. Semi Official in Nature.

Such proportions has the Journal's plan of guidance and chaperonage assumed that the municipal authorities and the committees in charge of the celebration are now referring applicants for accommodation and general information to the Journal bureaus. With each day the lists of hotels, boarding houses and furnished room houses having accommodations for strangers become more complete. By means of house-to-house canvassing and the prompt, voluntary Journal bureaus now have on register almost every vacant room in Greater New York. From hour to hour this register is amended, as landlords report the taking up of their vacant rooms, so that applicants may be sure they do not run any risk of being unaccommodated.

These up-to-date lists are submitted to visitors, who can tell at a glance what there is to be had in the section of the city they prefer and what the price is.
Private Homes Should Respond.
From the number of inquiries made daily at the Journal bureaus and from the rapidly increasing number of applications now taken up, it seems evident that thousands of private homes must be opened to strangers. In almost every private house and in many apartments and flats there should be one or more rooms that can be spared from the family and their invited guests. Heads of such houses are urged to communicate with the Journal bureaus, giving the number of strangers they can accommo-

BURNS CAUSE PARALYSIS.

Woman Injured Last Week Dies from a Resultant Stroke.

Mrs. Rosalie Ullmann, who lives on the first floor of No. 64 East Eighty-eighth street, died yesterday morning from a stroke of paralysis, superinduced by burns and shock received last Wednesday morning. At that time Mrs. Ullmann was cooking, and a live coal ignited her dress. Her screams attracted her friends, who threw blankets about her and extinguished the flames. But the burns and shock were too much for her.

DRANK A PINT OF CORROSIVE SUBLIMATE.

Poverty and the Desertion of Her Husband Made Mrs. Garthry Try in Vain to Die Yesterday.

Della Garthry, twenty-five years old, attempted suicide yesterday by drinking a pint of corrosive sublimate, or mercuric chloride, from a bottle found in her room. She was found in time and removed to Bellevue Hospital, and will probably recover. The woman, accompanied by a man who called at the house a week ago and engaged a room. The following day the man disappeared. Mrs. Garthry borrowed a cup of tea yesterday from Mrs. Lizzie Burns, who lives in the house, and shortly afterward, when Mrs. Burns went in to see her, she found Mrs. Garthry on the floor, almost unconscious. Poverty and the desertion of her husband, it is said, made her despondent.

Aged Woman's Sudden Death.

Mrs. Griffin, an undertaker at No. 25 Cannon street, reported to the Coroner's Office yesterday morning the sudden death of Mrs. Mary Jones, fifty years old, of No. 5 Lewis street. The cause of death was not reported.

MATTHEWS

LATEST PARISIAN AND AMERICAN GARMENT DISPLAY, Second Floor, Front.

Ladies and gentlemen are especially invited to visit our new and finest show rooms in America. Nothing has been left undone to make them complete in every detail.

Opening of Millinery.

MONDAY, SEPT. 18, TUESDAY, SEPT. 19, WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 20.

A feature of the exhibition will be the extensive showing of Imported Models, trained taste and expert knowledge having been utilized in making the selection one well in keeping with our reputation of all that is now, novel and beautiful in Millinery.

But while Paris and London set the fashions, they are not alone in the creation of charming styles. An inspection of the beautiful productions of our own designers will reveal an originality and elegance that even Messrs. Pouyanne, Marescot, Soeurs of Paris might envy. And the most moderate prices prevail throughout the entire collection.

We lead as to style, finish and desirability. Always determined to serve at an advantage as to quality, price, and nothing is left undone to merit all we claim.

This has been a year of improvements in all our many departments, to which we now invite your kind attention.
